

Customer Journey Map:

Scenario: A data enthusiast wants to explore and analyze UNESCO World Heritage Sites using Tableau.	 Entice How do users become aware of UNESCO sites?	 Enter What do users explore first in the dashboard?	 Engage How do users interact with the data?	 Exit What insights do users discover?	 Extend How do users continue their exploration?
 Experience Steps Yees actions does the user take at each stage?	- Sees a visualization about UNESCO sites on social media - Clicks to explore the interactive dashboard	- Lands on overview page (Global Map) - Filters by Region / Country / Site Type	- Views site details, trends & statistics - Compares sites using filters & charts	- Understands patterns in heritage distribution - Identifies key insights and takeaways	- Saves or shares the dashboard - Returns for deeper exploration later
 Touchpoints Where does the user interact with the dashboard?	- Social Media Posts - Blog / Articles / Presentations	- Tableau Dashboard (Landing Page) - Filters & Parameters	- Interactive Charts & Maps - Tooltips & Site Details	- Insights / Summary Section - Download / Export Options	- Bookmarks - Shared Dashboard Link
 User Emotions How does the user feel during this journey?	- Curious - Interested	- Excited - Motivated	- Engaged - Informed	- Satisfied - Insightful	- Inspired - Loyal
 Potential Insights What key insights might the user gain?	- UNESCO sites are diverse & valuable - Data storytelling sparks interest	- Global distribution of sites - Site types & categories overview	- Trends over years - Top countries & cultural/natural sites	- Key heritage hotspots - Patterns in cultural vs natural sites	- Deeper exploration of specific sites - Track changes over time
 Possible Pain Points What challenges might the user face?	- Data looks complex - Not aware of dashboard purpose	- Too many filters initially - Need guidance	- Overwhelmed by information - Unsure what to explore next	- Hard to summarize insights - Export options not obvious	- Forget to revisit - Link not saved or shared
 Ideas & Opportunities How can we improve the experience?	- Create engaging previews - Use storytelling approach	- Provide simple onboarding / How-to guide - Highlight key filters	- Add guided tour - Use annotations & clear tooltips	- Provide auto-summary of insights - Easy export & screenshot options	- Enable bookmarks & share easy link - Send updates on new data